

Airline Safety

In last decade automobiles had over 500,000 fatalities compared to 3,000 for air travel.

Since 2000, there has been a consistent downward trend in global fatalities related to air travel.

Number of passengers are increased in last decade by about 150%.

Economic Impact:

The aviation industry supports $3.5 trillion (4.1%) of the world's gross domestic product (GDP). If aviation were a country, it would rank 17th in size by GDP.

Percentage of flights involved in fatal accidents.

0.0000112%

10 Million jobs alone in North America

Air travel is safe and convenient and also a driving factor for economic growth.